and a beauty spa that looks like it came fresh off the pages of a travel article for a Bali resort.

Nestled within the facilities are also pockets of private resting areas to make you and your partner feel right at home. Watch TV, catch a video or simply chill out together while you take a break between photography and spa sessions.

Before all that, of course, you would want to speak to the bridal consultants and have them handle the nitty-gritty details of your wedding day. From bridal bouquets to car services to video services, everything you could possibly require will be planned for you.

There is also a wide range of gorgeous wedding dresses imported from Australia, Europe and Taiwan, as well as locally-designed by the boutique's own in-house designers. Get fitted with the most beautiful bridal gowns, evening gowns and tea dresses here.

Next up, mosey over to the spa area with your partner to get some first-rate pampering for that head-to-toe glow on your wedding day. Besides recommending you the right body and facial treatments, Style Bridal & Beauty's spa consultants can also advise you on a proper diet and nutrition plan for the months leading up to your big day.

Located conveniently at Tanjong Katong Complex, where ample parking space is available, Style Bridal & Beauty is a place you have to see to believe. Without doubt, it is one of the largest and most comprehensive bridal boutiques in Singapore and it comes with a promise.
